

Sea Wolf Adventures Media Fact Sheet

To help you with your story/article about Sea Wolf Adventures, we've collected some facts to get you started.

About Sea Wolf

Sea Wolf Adventures connects travellers to destinations in the Broughton Archipelago and the Great Bear Rainforest for grizzly bear viewing, wilderness and wildlife experiences, and First Nations cultural experiences.

Owner/Operator

- Mike Willie
- Mike is from the remote village of Kingcome Inlet, BC, Canada
- Member of the Musgamakw Dzawada'enuxw First Nation
- Given names are
 - T'ła'ba'lisame' (Breaching Whale and Leader)
 - T'łalis (Breaching Whale Around the World)

More information about Mike can be found at <http://seawolfadventures.ca/about/>

History

Sea Wolf Adventures exists to maintain our connection to the land, water, wildlife, and our First Nation's culture. Cultural sustainability is at the heart of the company. We are language and culture teachers and share our culture in a very respectful authentic way.

Sea Wolf was created in 2013.

Location

Sea Wolf Adventures is located on Northern Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada. Our tours start from Port McNeill and Telegraph Cove, BC depending on the tour.

Our Boat

- 26 foot aluminum air chambered vessel is New Zealand designed which provides that added stability, safety and reliability.
- We meet all Transport Canada Specifications and Regulations for safety and stability.
- Members of the Blue Decal Program.
- Our operators are licensed by Transport Canada.
- Certified for 8 passengers

Tours

Grizzly Bears of the Wild: A First Nations wildlife journey into the Great Bear Rainforest

Get up close and personal with British Columbia's grizzly bears on an intimate and immersive wildlife watching experience. Join First Nations' guides on a tour through the awe-inspiring waterways of their people's traditional territories.

- Starts from Port McNeill
- Maximum 6 guests per trip
- 10-12 hour tour

Wildlife and Cultural Expedition

Departing from Port McNeill, combine cultural discoveries with world-class wildlife watching on an adventure into the heart of traditional First Nations' territory of the Kwakwaka'wakw: Vancouver Island North. Share our love of the local landscape and learn more about the spiritual side of our connection with the wildlife that call these waterways home.

- Starts from Port McNeill
- Maximum 6 guests per trip
- 3-4 hour tour

Contact Details

- Website: <http://seawolfadventures.ca>
- Email: info@SeaWolfAdventures.ca
- Phone: 250-902-9653